PRESIDENT'S CORNER

This has been an exciting first half of the year as your Club President.

We started a new event this year - The President's Tea

I was hoping we might get about 25 people or so, to come in to Ballard and celebrate and honor our past Fjallkonur and Princesses...we had 50 people there! Princess Stefania and our current Fjallkona, Alene Moris and our first Fjallkona, Lois Keller, who made some delicious vinarterta were all in attendance.

I think the most exciting development to have happened so far is that the Seattle Icelandic Club will be hosting the Icelandic National League of North America (INL) annual convention next year! The INL has had 93 conventions and the 94th convention in 2013 will be held here in Seattle for the first time, by our Club.

We have a strong committee working on the details and we will be in need of more people to help and contribute towards this large undertaking. This will include ideas, hands on work, procuring donation items and sponsors! Maybe you or your company would be able to sponsor an event, a luncheon/dinner, speaker/artist or a tour of Seattle.

3 generations: Amma Kathryn Chester with future princess baby Genevieve and former princess (1995) Sarah Chester Joplin

I know there are some people who wonder why this is important for us to do as a Club and right now we have some very energetic people, who feel this is a worthwhile adventure and is very important to our Icelandic culture and heritage. Why is it important you ask? Going to Manitoba, you will find

The food was beautifully presented and scrumptiously delicious.

3rd and 4th generation Canadian Icelanders, who speak fluent Icelandic! Many of them have never even been to Iceland, or if they have, it has only been once or twice, yet they are keeping their culture alive and well.

It's hard work, many of us here in Seattle aren't so removed from Iceland and their relatives, yet they know little about Iceland. Being Icelandic has become more of a novelty, or an answer on Jeopardy, than an actual part of our personal history.

I invite all of you reading this message to do something... get involved, and get your kids and grandkids involved. Our June 17th Independence Day celebration this year falls on Father's Day, what a better way to celebrate, than by bringing dad to the Leifur Erikson Hall in Ballard and enjoying a cold Dad's Root Beer float. We have recently mailed postcards announcing this event and more information can be found on the back cover of this newsletter. Back by popular demand, this year our annual picnic will include swimming, boating, gunny sack races, water balloons, potluck salads and of course... Icelandic Hot Dogs!

Please plan to join us at O.O. Denny Park, at the NorthEast end of Lake Washington from 12 – 4pm on Sunday, August 12th.

Don't be a stranger, come and enjoy some or all of our activities, I know we all live very busy lives, but trust me...your kids and grandkids will thank you for it.

*Bless Bless,
Sonna Somerville-Ghilarducci*

2012 Þorrrablót

by Emily Kristjaanson

Another successful Þorrrablót was held on Saturday, February 25, 2012 at Seattle's Nordic Heritage Museum in Ballard.

Margrét Solvadottir, Chairperson of the Þorrrablót committee, welcomed guests and said that this Þorrrablót would be an old fashioned one with eating, drinking, singing and dancing as it is done in Iceland.

Sigga Kling, our Icelandic MC, kept the audience's attention with her entertaining style and magic stones!

Our new ICGS President, Sonna Ghilarducci, brought greetings from the club and the INL. David Johnson, our club Secretary, introduced guests from Iceland, Asta Sol Kristjansdottir, Program Director of the Snorri Program and Asdis Eva Hannesdottir, Director and CEO of the Nordic Association of Iceland.

Our singer-entertainer, Gudjon Stefansson, was wonderful. He was easy to listen to and sang songs that all of the crowd could relate to. Later in the evening, he teamed up with our dance musician, Larus Grimsson, for an evening of great music for singing and dancing.

The raffle items (donated by Judy Ohai, Tota Sellars & Emily Kristjanson) plus three tickets to Iceland donated by Icelandair were a big hit. Eight happy people were recipients of these. Our lovely princesses, Stefanie Ghilarducci, Jenny Bjarnason and Margo Einarsson did a wonderful job of selling raffle tickets.

The Chef, Steinar Thor Thorfinnson, did an outstanding job of preparing and serving the food. He brought the Icelandic food with him. Also, we had a table of foods suitable for those who are vegetarian and others who did not want to partake in the Icelandic food! Thank you to Haukur Hauksson for his able cooking skills in the kitchen, as well as, Halldora Solvadottir and Vidar Sveinbjornsson.

The wonderful desserts were made by: kleiner - Tota Sellars & Maria Cray; pönnukökur: Gusti Helgason and Margret's sister from Iceland, Halldora Solvadottir. Of course, the Skyr was brought along from Iceland and some wonderful ingredients were added by the Chef.

A bottle of Glacial water was provided for every guest, compliments of the company. Also, Einstok beer, the first of its kind, was donated by Bernard La Borie from

Chef Steinar

Canada Ole and Ted Beck

Director and CEO of the Nordic Association of Iceland Asdis Eva Hannesdottir (l), Seattle's Nordic Heritage Museum Director Eric Nelson, and Director of the Snorri Program Asta Sol Kristjansdottir.

California. Henry Bjornsson and friend drove down to pick it up. A BIG thank you to Henry.

Our cheerful and efficient bartenders, Karen and Irene, kept the people happy. Their beautiful smiles welcomed everyone!

The Þorraprælar, the young men and women that are Icelandic students of Margret Solvadottir were SO helpful with setting up the tables and chairs, serving, doing what ever was needed AND CLEAN-UP. We could not have done all of that without their help. They were fantastic!

An outstanding job by the Committee headed by Margret Solvadottir. She “went to Viking” and spent many hours talking to the participants while in Iceland and many hours on the phone seeking help here in Seattle. Her committee members consisting of Tota Sellars, Judy Ohai, Henry Bjornsson and Emily Kristjanson supported her efforts.

AND BIG THANKYOU TO MARGRET SOLVADOTTIR AND COMMITTEE!!!!

MC Sigga Kling with Margrét Solvadottir, Chairperson of the Þorrablót committee.

Our cheerful and efficient bartenders Karen and Irene kept the people in “good spirits”.

Guttormsson Family Foundation announces 2012 Snorri Scholarships

The Guttormsson Family Foundation announced the winners of their 2012 Annual Snorri Scholarships

by Lögberg-Heimskringla on Saturday, March 10, 2012

The Guttormsson Family Foundation has announced the winners of their 2012 Annual Snorri Scholarships. Julie Sommers of Lopez Island, WA, and Amanda Allen of Seattle, WA, are the winners of $2000 each toward their costs with the Snorri Program this summer. Julie is a 23 year old, summa cum laude graduate from Corban College. She has been working an AmeriCorps position at the Lopez Island Family Resource Center, most recently as a part time employee. Her Icelandic heritage stems from her maternal Afi, Oscar Westford who grew up on a farm in North Dakota. His parents were Helga Benson from Seydisfirdi and Sveinn Westford from Bardarstrandarsysla. Julie and her siblings have been "proudly aware of their Icelandic roots." She has pored over notebooks of family history, "following twisting branches of the family tree back hundreds of years." Sounds like she has the "old peoples disease"-GENEALOGY. Julie has been dreaming of traveling to Iceland all her life and "now has the opportunity to experience her heritage in a full and authentic way."

Amanda Allen is a 28 year old photographer, videographer from Seattle. She hopes that by visiting Iceland that she can enrich her knowledge and connection with a family heritage only heard about in stories and imagined since she was a child. Growing up the only tangible kinship she had to her Icelandic ancestors was through Christmas stories from her Grandparents and Aunts, attending the Free Unitarian Church in Blaine, WA that was founded by Icelandic settlers in 1929, and through making a traditional Vinaterta cake every holiday season with her Mom. She hopes that the beautiful surreal nature of Iceland's icy and volcanic landscape will help her expand her Photographic portfolio, and documentary travel videos. She also hopes to gain experience and better knowledge of farming practices and techniques, and food cultivation and the rich Culinary heritage of Iceland. Her family lineage is pretty diverse, but she has always felt most akin and interested in her Icelandic heritage. When she found out about the Snorri Foundation opportunity it was only 5 days before the application was due, she was not financially prepared for taking a trip of this nature so soon but decided she must take the chance and apply as this is only available to people 21-28 years of age and she would be turning 29 this coming year.

The GFF funding this year was obtained from Dr. Steve and Rosemary Guttormsson, Bishop Stefan T. Guttormsson, Paul Guttormsson Esq., Harvey Thorleifson PhD Univ. of Minn., and Jeff and Pam Furstenau. We thank you all for your continued support of this unique program. There is no other country that reaches out to their "diaspora" like the Icelanders. We should all be proud to be Icelanders.
